☒ YES! I'll add Menno Place to my Will, in order to provide an estate gift as a part of my legacy.

Here are two ways that you can put a charitable gift in your Will:

☐ Percentage of the residue* of my Estate _____

*Residue of your Estate is what remains after taxes, administrative expenses and your heirs have received their specific gifts or proportion. An advantage is that as your circumstances change, your Will does not have to be altered, as the proportion remains the same.

Sample wording: "I bequeath the residue of my Estate (or ____%) of the residue of my Estate to the Mennonite Benevolent Society.

☐ A specific amount _____

Sample wording: "I give $_____ to support the work of the Mennonite Benevolent Society.

If you wish to donate to a specific MBS initiative, (eg: "Redevelopment of the Long-term Care Home", we recommend the following wording in order to ensure your Legacy is realized, should that specific program no longer be in existence at the time the bequest is realized.

"If through the passage of time, a designated MBS initiative is no longer in place, I give permission to alter the terms of my Will to adhere as closely as possible to my original wishes; or in the event that this is not possible, please direct my gift to the area of greatest need."

MBS recommends that you consult a legal advisor when planning your Will.

Receipt of and spending of donations is confined to Board approved programs and projects. If, in the opinion of MBS, it should become no longer practical or possible to use this gift for a purpose specified or restricted by the donor (for example, if the program to which it relates is restructured, oversubscribed, or discontinued), MBS will redirect the gift to another purpose where it is most needed, as determined by Board in its discretion.
